Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

CAL Automotive ("CAL")

What we do

How does CAL protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We restrict access to your personal information to only those employees who need to know. We require all companies with whom we share your information to keep it confidential.

How does CAL collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- apply for a lease or loan
- give us your contact information
- pay us by check or use your credit card or debit card to pay us

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. Please see below for more rights under state laws.
